

Monday 11th May Writing Challenge

Make up four of your own challenges for Heracles. They can be as silly or as serious as you like!

Step 1: Choose a verb from the yellow.

Step 2: Choose a picture from the grid.

Step 3: Write a clear sentence explaining the challenge.

For example: Heracles must collect some minute stables from a far away land and bring them to king Eurystheus.

deer	lion	bull

birds	hyrda (many-headed snake)	wild boar find collect fight clean escape

stables	mares (horses)	belt

cattle	apples	three-headed dog

Tuesday 12th May Writing Challenge

Make up four of your own mythical challenges using the pictures and verbs in the grid. Three spaces are left blank for you in case you want to add your own ideas.

Step 1: Choose a verb from the yellow.

Step 2: Choose a picture from the grid.

Step 3: Write a clear sentence explaining the challenge.

For example: Jemima must dive through the waterfall to find the sharks hidden in a secret cave and set them free.

 snakes	 sharks	 bear
 volcano	 waterfall	 desert
find collect fight rescue escape free
 enchanted box	 magic bird	 precious feather
?	?	?

Wednesday 13th May Myth Planning

Choose 3 adjectives to describe your characters' strengths and 3 to describe their weaknesses. Then write two sentences for each character, describing what they are like.

Hero (main character)	Villain (bad character)

Thursday 14th May Myth Planning

1. Think carefully and write a sentence about why your character is travelling - what is the purpose of their journey?
2. Write a list of places they will travel through, using expanded noun phrases. For example: a long, twisting mountain road and a freezing, snow-capped mountain.
3. How are they travelling? Is there magic involved? Is your character good at walking / running / flying? Do they enjoy the journey? Write two sentences including verbs and adverbs. For example: Jemima strides up the mountain path quickly and effortlessly.

2. Where

3. How

Friday 15th May Myth Planning

1. Think about where the challenge will take place and write a sentence using prepositions to describe where things are in the place.

For example: Inside a secret cave behind a fearsome waterfall on the side of a mountain.

2. Note down who is there. For example: The hero, Jemima and her friend, an otter called Pip.

3. Write two or three simple sentences describing what happens.

For example: They waded through the waterfall and search for the secret cave. They find the rock which hides the cave and move it. Water rushes out and the sharks inside are free to swim away.

4. Think about how your characters feel and how they act. Write a list of adverbs which describe how they complete the challenge.

For example: scared, tired, brave, bravely, cleverly, slowly.
